

OpenAIRE Helpdesk

supporting and guiding you to best practices in Open Science

The OpenAIRE OS helpdesk is a service that covers all OS publishing issues, developed through an integrated approach with all OpenAIRE stakeholders, contributing to an effective support system. The main goal of the OS helpdesk is to run a distributed and multifaceted support system, to assist the OpenAIRE stakeholders in all matters related to OS.

HELPDESK

- ▶ Ask a question
- ▶ FAQs

RESOURCES

- ▶ OS Primers
- ▶ OS & Service Guides
- ▶ Factsheets
- ▶ Use cases

TRAINING

- ▶ Webinars
- ▶ Workshops
- ▶ Online courses
- ▶ Community of Practice

How to make your data FAIR

How to find a trustworthy repository for your data

How to enrich research artifacts

How do I license my research data

Making your repository Open

Anonymize your data before publishing

How to comply with H2020 mandates

How to deal with sensitive data

How to report your publication and data to the EC

Data formats for preservation

How to validate and register your repository

